BENTON, LA.,
THURSDAY, APRIL 18, 1895.

He who thinks correctly will rid himself of ignorance and acquire wisdom.

The Shreveport Gray cigar, five cents straight. Sold by Stovall & Smith, Benton.

The cornerstone of every fortress of man's power and man's honor is man's fortitude.

For Paints, Oil, Varnishes and Window Glass, go to Leon M. Carter's, Shreveport.

Mr. Walter A. Stampley died near Carterville, on the 9th instant; aged about 22 years.

Economy is the road to Wealth.—Buy your Drugs, &c., from Leon M. Carter, Shreveport.

The prospects were never better at this season of the year a good fruit crop in Bossier.

Steady advancement and prosperity is what a town wants, and Benton has these qualifications.

Forty cents, cash, for an ounce of Quinine, at Leon M. Carter's Drug Store, Shreveport, this week.

The second quarterly conference for North Bossier circuit will be held at Plain Dealing on June 1st and 2d.

The glory of the world is like a flower: it stands in full bloom in the morning and fades in the heat of the day.

Leon M. Carter, druggist, corner of Texas and Spring streets, has just received a fresh supply of Landreth's garden seed and onion sets.

Might is often right, but right very often, when the good time comes, knocks the stuffing out of might.

A visit to Leon M. Carter, Druggist, Shreveport, will convince you that the hard times are knocked out by low prices.

Though the thunderbolt descend upon thy head, yield thou never to the allurements that beguile men from the path of truth.

SOLUTION OF THE FINANCIAL QUESTION.—Buy your drugs, patent medicines, etc., from Leon M. Carter, Shreveport, La.

Self begets selfishness. There is no evil but what flows from self.—There is no wrong but what is done by the assertion of self.

Come, everybody come, to Leon M. Carter's Drug store, Shreveport, for patent medicines, drugs, etc.—We defy competition.

One copy of a paper that reaches the home is worth more to the advertiser than a hundred placards that litter the highways.

Why pay stamped prices for patent medicines when you can save from 15 to 25 per cent by buying from Leon M. Carter, Shreveport?

As the rays of the sun drown the darkness of the world, so he who perseveres in his search will find the truth and the truth will enlighten him.

Cotton is low, but you can buy from Leon M. Carter, Druggist, Shreveport, at prices that it will make you think that the world is coming to an end.

Mr. C. W. Edwards, Town Marshal of Haughton, who killed Mr. Joseph D. Long on the 6th instant, had a preliminary trial before Judge J. T. Watkins last Thursday, and was discharged.

Personal Paragraphs.

Miss Mamie Meares, of Plain Dealing, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. W. R. Sibley.

Mr. Chester Smith, architect and builder, is now at work ceiling the Masonic Hall at this place.

Shreveport Times, Saturday: Mr. Leon M. Carter returned from Arcadia last night, whither he went to look after the compress at that place.

Misses Mamie Adger, of Hughes Spur; Pearl Thompson, of Cottage Grove, and Janie Smith, of Collinsburg, were the guests of Misses Janie and Dollie Cabeen Friday and Saturday.

Shreveport Times: In noting the visit of Judge A. D. Land, of this city, to reside over a case at Mansfield, in which Judge W. P. Hall recused himself, the Democrat-Journal says the people did a sensible thing in electing Judge Land. That is just about the opinion the people of Caddo take of the matter.

Shreveport Times: Mr. John M. Scanland our quondam editorial friend, paid us a visit as he passed through to visit his brother's family at Benton. He never seems to grow a day older, and can entertain one for hours with accounts of his visits to the great metropolis, and is always up "to date" with news.

We regret to learn that the gin-house of Mr. J. T. Manry, containing four bales of cotton, and a quantity of seed, was burned, last Saturday night. No insurance. The fire occurred about 8 o'clock in the evening. There had been no fire in the vicinity for the week previous. Mr. Manry lives five miles north of Bellevue.

The attention of our readers is called to the card of Messrs. Spence & Francis, house, sign and ornamental painters, in this issue of the Banner. They have done some good work in Benton, and given satisfaction in the performance of their contracts. They are gentlemen worthy of the public confidence and patronage.

See card of Mr. J. E. Adger, Immigration Agent for Bossier parish, in another column. Mr. Adger, who is an earnest worker in the movement for immigration, will give prompt attention to all business entrusted to his care.

I have taken my partner's best and am going it alone in business. I have goods and prices to suit the people, and am selling them so low I can hardly support my wife. She talks of going back to her daddy.
T. M. VAUGHAN.

The largest stock of Blank Books and Stationery can be found at Leon M. Carter's, Druggist and Stationer, corner Texas and Spring streets, Shreveport.

Bossier District Court adjourned on last Thursday until next July.

A heavy rain fell at this place last Tuesday night.

Mack Wellman.

Attention is called to the card of Mr. Mack Wellman, exclusive paint and wall paper dealer, Shreveport. Mr. Mack Wellman is not only a first-class workman himself, but an honest and conscientious dealer, and strives on all occasions to give satisfaction in work, goods and prices. He keeps a full line of paints and wall paper, and is abundantly able to meet all demands made upon him and give general satisfaction to all buyers. Mack Wellman is thorough, energetic, enterprising, reliable and experienced, and gives his undivided attention to his business, and by untiring perseverance and strict integrity his transactions extend through a large circle. Any one having business in his line will do well to call on him.

Come and see us when you come to Shreveport. After getting our prices and spending your cash you will feel happier. Leon M. Carter, 200 Texas Street.

"We take pleasure in recommending Chamberlain's Cough Remedy because it is praised by all who try it," says J. W. Cox & Son, druggists, Marshfield, Oregon. No one afflicted with throat or lung trouble can use this remedy without praising it. It always gives prompt relief. It is especially valuable for colds as it relieves the lungs, makes breathing easier and aids expectoration. A cold will never result in pneumonia when this remedy is taken and reasonable care exercised. For sale by W. M. Abney, druggist.

Money saved, is money made. Remember the wide awake druggist, Leon M. Carter, Shreveport, is selling goods so cheap, that it will make you forget that the Solons in Washington will do nothing to relieve a suffering people.

Attention, Farmers.

The reliable Druggist, Leon M. Carter, corner of Texas and Spring streets, Shreveport, appreciating the hard times and scarcity of money has inaugurated the new department of selling to the retail trade for cash at wholesale prices. When you are in need of anything in his line call and be convinced. He buys direct from the manufacturers all patent medicines and can sell lower than any house in North Louisiana.

Frank Shepardson, an engineer on the Southern Pacific Ry., who resides at Los Angeles, Cal., was troubled with rheumatism for a long time. He was treated by several physicians, also visited the Hot Springs, but received no permanent relief until he used Chamberlain's Pain Balm. He says it is the best medicine in the world for rheumatism. For sale by W. M. Abney, druggist.

See card of Messrs. Goldsteinn, Rose & Co., Shreveport, dealers in groceries, produce, canned goods, fruit, &c. They deal in the best articles in their line and will give you complete satisfaction at lowest market prices. Their immense sales permit them to keep their stock always supplied with fresh goods.

Messrs. Whited & Wheeler, of Shreveport, manufacture all grades and styles of rough and dressed lumber, sash, doors, blinds, mouldings, &c., that compare favorably with imported articles in quality and lead them in prices.

A full line of plantation groceries can always be found at Foster & Glasell's, Shreveport.

Why worry and fret over politics, when you can be made happy for so little by buying your drugs etc. from Leon M. Carter, druggist, Shreveport.
